Dear Parent/Carer

A Christmas Carol at The Courtyard, Hereford 4pm 23rd December 2018

As you know, your child is preparing to take English Literature GCSE in May next year. The Courtyard in Hereford are having a one day performance of A Christmas Carol on Sunday 23rd December which is one of the three set texts for the exam.

The version to be performed at the Courtyard is described as:

Dickens' classic novella brought to sparkling life in a unique retelling brimming with warmth, wit and wonder. Rather than relying on elaborate sets and costumes, three singers and musicians take the tale back to its Victorian fireside roots. Using only voices and instruments, the show paints a vivid and evocative picture of Dickens' world using carols which would have been current at the time that Dickens wrote the original.

We have been fortunate enough to reserve a small quantity of tickets for the matinee performance of this exciting production and I think it would provide a deeper understanding of the novel and Dickens' messages about Christmas and social reform.

As the performance takes place in the Christmas holidays, the students should make their own way to the Courtyard where I will meet them at 3.45pm and they should be collected from there too at the end – around 6.15pm (tbc).

Please pay £12.00 on ParentPay to secure your ticket, returning the reply slip to me. If more students wish to go than there are tickets, in the interests of fairness, we will pull names out of a hat.

Yours faithfully
